W. B. Wakefield, Who Has Charge of It in England, and Ernest Thompson Seton Will Help Establish It Throughout America.

Ernst Thompson-Seton, Who Coined the Term, Stakes the Plan.

I will do my duty to God and the country. I will do my best to help all the boys in trouble. I will do my best to help all the boys in trouble.

The First Band of Boy Scouts in America, the Baltimore Patrol of Palermo, Md.

Above and beyond the mere idea of training boys for scouting and for America, there is a broader purpose, for there is a broader purpose. It is to create a new spirit of citizenship, to instill a new spirit of citizenship, to instill a new spirit of citizenship, to instill a new spirit of citizenship, to instill a new spirit of citizenship.
