"THE HOBBLE" IS THE LATEST FREAK IN WOMAN'S FASHIONS.

Skirts Are So Tight Around the Ankle That Locomotion Is Seriously Impeded and Speed Is Impossible.

In the morning hours she had gone for a drive, and when she returned she felt rather subdued. Her "hobble" skirt had not been cut quite straight, and she felt rather shy when she had to wear it. She decided not to wear it again.

There are some who object to this new fashion. They say that it is not practical. But the women who are wearing it say that it is practical and comfortable. They also say that it is safer than other skirts.

There are also some who object to this new fashion. They say that it is not practical. But the women who are wearing it say that it is practical and comfortable. They also say that it is safer than other skirts.

This shows the longest stride possible in the new skirt.

 touring the streets of midtown, the woman in the "hobble" skirt is not noticed by anyone.
