Famous Old Places Where the Elect Used to Congregate Have Passed Out of Existence.

There are these two old landmarks of the Elect, the Stonewall and the Old Bohemia, where the Elect used to congregate and discuss the events of the day. But these places are now deserted, and the Elect have moved on to other places.

The Stonewall was a meeting place for the Elect, and it was there that they discussed the important events of the day. But now, it is a deserted place, and the Elect have moved on to other places.

The Old Bohemia was another meeting place for the Elect, and it was there that they discussed the important events of the day. But now, it is a deserted place, and the Elect have moved on to other places.

The Elect used to discuss the events of the day, and they used to congregate in these places. But now, these places are deserted, and the Elect have moved on to other places.

The Elect used to discuss the events of the day, and they used to congregate in these places. But now, these places are deserted, and the Elect have moved on to other places.

The Elect used to discuss the events of the day, and they used to congregate in these places. But now, these places are deserted, and the Elect have moved on to other places.

The Elect used to discuss the events of the day, and they used to congregate in these places. But now, these places are deserted, and the Elect have moved on to other places.

The Elect used to discuss the events of the day, and they used to congregate in these places. But now, these places are deserted, and the Elect have moved on to other places.

The Elect used to discuss the events of the day, and they used to congregate in these places. But now, these places are deserted, and the Elect have moved on to other places.

The Elect used to discuss the events of the day, and they used to congregate in these places. But now, these places are deserted, and the Elect have moved on to other places.

The Elect used to discuss the events of the day, and they used to congregate in these places. But now, these places are deserted, and the Elect have moved on to other places.

The Elect used to discuss the events of the day, and they used to congregate in these places. But now, these places are deserted, and the Elect have moved on to other places.