MAILING LETTERS IN THE POST OFFICE

During three months in which weekly letters were sent to St. Louis, Missouri, to the total value of $500,000, only one letter was lost and two were delayed. The loss rate was 0.02%, which is considered excellent for the service.