NEW YORK PAYS ABOUT $7,000,000 YEARLY FOR ITS MUSIC

The New York Symphony Orchestra, the largest and most important in the United States, has an annual income of about $700,000, the largest share of which is provided by the subscription of $500,000. The orchestra is conducted by Dr. Seidl, who is also the leader of the orchestra. The orchestra consists of over 100 musicians, including 50 first violinists, 30 violas, 20 cellos, and 20 double basses. The orchestra also has a chamber orchestra of 20 musicians, consisting of 10 first violinists, 5 violas, 5 cellos, and 5 double basses. The orchestra gives about 50 concerts a year, and the subscription is $500,000, which is divided among the musicians according to their rank. The orchestra is supported by the subscription of $500,000, which is divided among the musicians according to their rank. The orchestra is supported by the subscription of $500,000, which is divided among the musicians according to their rank.

The orchestra gives about 50 concerts a year, and the subscription is $500,000, which is divided among the musicians according to their rank. The orchestra is supported by the subscription of $500,000, which is divided among the musicians according to their rank. The orchestra is supported by the subscription of $500,000, which is divided among the musicians according to their rank.

PERSONAL SACRIFICES MADE BY WOMEN FOR SUFFRAGE

HARDSHIPS OF TRAVEL AND PHYSICAL SUFFERING CONSOLED CHEERFULLY BORNE BY MRS. CATT, DR. SHAW, AND OTHERS TO AID THE CAUSE.

Mrs. Harriet Shaw, who is a member of the National Women's Suffrage Association, has been in this country for the past seven years, and has been a consistent worker for the cause. She has given up her position as a teacher, and has devoted all her time to the suffrage movement. She has been arrested many times, and has been imprisoned for months at a time. She has been refused employment, and has been denied the right to vote. She has been subjected to all sorts of abuse and persecution, but she has never given up her work. She has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition. She has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition.

Mrs. Catt, who is the president of the National Women's Suffrage Association, has been in this country for the past ten years, and has been a consistent worker for the cause. She has given up her position as a teacher, and has devoted all her time to the suffrage movement. She has been arrested many times, and has been imprisoned for months at a time. She has been refused employment, and has been denied the right to vote. She has been subjected to all sorts of abuse and persecution, but she has never given up her work. She has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition. She has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition.

Dr. Shaw, who is the secretary of the National Women's Suffrage Association, has been in this country for the past seven years, and has been a consistent worker for the cause. He has given up his position as a physician, and has devoted all his time to the suffrage movement. He has been arrested many times, and has been imprisoned for months at a time. He has been refused employment, and has been denied the right to vote. He has been subjected to all sorts of abuse and persecution, but he has never given up his work. He has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition. He has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition.

Mrs. Catt, who is the president of the National Women's Suffrage Association, has been in this country for the past ten years, and has been a consistent worker for the cause. She has given up her position as a teacher, and has devoted all her time to the suffrage movement. She has been arrested many times, and has been imprisoned for months at a time. She has been refused employment, and has been denied the right to vote. She has been subjected to all sorts of abuse and persecution, but she has never given up her work. She has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition. She has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition.

Dr. Shaw, who is the secretary of the National Women's Suffrage Association, has been in this country for the past seven years, and has been a consistent worker for the cause. He has given up his position as a physician, and has devoted all his time to the suffrage movement. He has been arrested many times, and has been imprisoned for months at a time. He has been refused employment, and has been denied the right to vote. He has been subjected to all sorts of abuse and persecution, but he has never given up his work. He has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition. He has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition.

Mrs. Catt, who is the president of the National Women's Suffrage Association, has been in this country for the past ten years, and has been a consistent worker for the cause. She has given up her position as a teacher, and has devoted all her time to the suffrage movement. She has been arrested many times, and has been imprisoned for months at a time. She has been refused employment, and has been denied the right to vote. She has been subjected to all sorts of abuse and persecution, but she has never given up her work. She has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition. She has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition.

Dr. Shaw, who is the secretary of the National Women's Suffrage Association, has been in this country for the past seven years, and has been a consistent worker for the cause. He has given up his position as a physician, and has devoted all his time to the suffrage movement. He has been arrested many times, and has been imprisoned for months at a time. He has been refused employment, and has been denied the right to vote. He has been subjected to all sorts of abuse and persecution, but he has never given up his work. He has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition. He has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition.

Mrs. Catt, who is the president of the National Women's Suffrage Association, has been in this country for the past ten years, and has been a consistent worker for the cause. She has given up her position as a teacher, and has devoted all her time to the suffrage movement. She has been arrested many times, and has been imprisoned for months at a time. She has been refused employment, and has been denied the right to vote. She has been subjected to all sorts of abuse and persecution, but she has never given up her work. She has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition. She has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition.

Dr. Shaw, who is the secretary of the National Women's Suffrage Association, has been in this country for the past seven years, and has been a consistent worker for the cause. He has given up his position as a physician, and has devoted all his time to the suffrage movement. He has been arrested many times, and has been imprisoned for months at a time. He has been refused employment, and has been denied the right to vote. He has been subjected to all sorts of abuse and persecution, but he has never given up his work. He has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition. He has been a consistent worker, and has never been daunted by the opposition.