HOW GAMBLERS FLEECE VICTIMS BY CROOKED DEVICES

Clever Schemes to Prevent Big Winnings—Judge Rosalsky’s Parole Plan and Flynn’s Secret Methods Arouse Consternation in “the Fraternity.”

PITTEN. One of the players. A no-nonsense New York gambler, with a face as hard as a brick wall. He was thebrains behind the operation. He had been in the game for years and was well-known for his sharpness and his ability to spot crooked players.

Rosalsky was a man of many talents. He was a con artist, a master of disguise, and a skilled card sharp. He had been in the game for years, and was known for his ability to spot crooked players. He was clever, and always one step ahead of the competition.

Flynn was a gambler who had made a name for himself in the game. He was a crook, and was known for his ability to cheat players out of their money. He was a skilled card sharp, and was always one step ahead of the competition.

The crooks of the gambling world had been busy lately. They had been trying to figure out a way to fleece the victims of their schemes. They had been trying to come up with new and clever ways to cheat players out of their money. They had been trying to figure out a way to make their schemes more foolproof.

Here's how it works: the crooks set up a game in which the players are not aware of the crook's presence. They then use the crook's skills to cheat the players out of their money. The crooks use a variety of methods to cheat the players, including marking cards, picking pockets, and even using psychological tricks.

The crooks have been able to fleece the victims of their schemes because they have been able to figure out a way to make their schemes more foolproof. They have been able to come up with new and clever ways to cheat players out of their money.

The crooks are not content with just fleece the victims of their schemes. They are also trying to figure out a way to fleece each other. They are trying to come up with new and clever ways to cheat each other out of their money.
