FIGHTING TO BEAUTIFY FIFTH AVENUE WITH TREES

Widening of the Avenue Above Forty-Seventh: Street Gives Fresh Impetus to the Movement of the Tree Planting Association.

This is the time when Fifth Avenue was very active. A new tree planting movement was getting under way, and the streets were decorated with the blossoms of the spring. The avenue was wide and beautiful, with the trees lining its sides. The cost of the street was not yet fully realized, and the whole city was alive with the spirit of the new movement.

The tree planting movement had been in progress for some time, but now it seemed to take on new life. The streets were thronged with people, and the avenues were bright with the colors of the new planting. The trees were a sight to behold, and the people were eager to see them.

The streets were decorated with tents and booths, and the avenue was filled with music and song. The people were enthusiastic, and the movement seemed to be gaining momentum. It was a time of excitement and hope, and the future looked bright.

The tree planting movement continued to grow, and the streets were soon covered with the blossoms of the new planting. The people were happy, and the city was alive with the spirit of the new movement.

The tree planting movement was a success, and the streets were soon covered with the blossoms of the new planting. The people were happy, and the city was alive with the spirit of the new movement.