Comprehensive Plan to Vitalize the Moral and Religious Forces, Backed by Leading Men of the Country, Will Be Inaugurated Here This Week

There has occurred this unique interest and tremor upwelling from the part of the men of letters who have been responsible for the Religious Forward Movement.

The plan is being formulated and discussed by a group of leading men of the country who have been keeping in touch with each other and who have been working together to bring about this new era in religious life. The plan is one of the most important and significant events in the history of religious life in the country, and it is expected that it will be successful.

It is intended that the Religious Forward Movement will be a movement of the whole country, and that it will be supported by all classes of people. The plan is to be carried out in a number of ways, including the establishment of religious schools, the formation of religious societies, and the publication of religious literature.
