Mr. McDonnell said to Two Times re: Photographs which are unwholesome and that all these claims are well substantiated. The stand which he is taking is that no candidaces for public office should be allowed to be on the ballot before the public is given an opportunity to see photographs of them which may have a bearing on their character. He states that there is a certain amount of propaganda being carried on in the campaign which he would not hesitate to criticize if he believed it was necessary for the good of the community.

There should be an all-out campaign against the evils of pictures which are objectionable and which are being carried on under existing conditions. It is a question of the public interest and the public safety.

The public should be given an opportunity to see these pictures and to form a judgment as to their fitness for public office. It is a question of the public interest and the public safety.
