U. S. District Attorney Believes That as More Offenders Are Being Punished There Is an Awakening of the Public Conscience and a Promise of Better Things for the Country.

U. S. District Attorney Henry A. Wise

"I believe there is an awakening of the public conscience and a promise of better things for the country."

U. S. District Attorney Henry A. Wise

"I believe there is an awakening of the public conscience and a promise of better things for the country."